Editor and Editorial Board Members: General Music Today

General Music Today, a publication of MENC: The National Association for Music Education, is seeking nominations for a new Editor. We are also seeking nominations for two new members of the editorial board. The duties will begin on July 1, 2010 and continue through June 30, 2016.

Qualifications

- Be a member of the Society for General Music (any MENC member who selects General Music as a teaching interest is a member of SGM.)
- Be a professional music educator who is committed to excellence in teaching and scholarship as evidenced by active participation in the field of music education. PreK-12 music educators are encouraged to apply.
- Have the expertise and be able to commit the necessary time to carry out the duties of the position.

Application

- Provide a letter indicating your interest in the position including a statement that you can fulfill the duties required of the position.
- Provide a complete vitae that characterizes your qualifications for the position.
- Obtain three letters of support e-mailed directly to the Editor of General Music Today.
