I imagine music, music imagines me. When I play, the stars dance and the notes sing with perfect harmony.

I imagine music, music imagines me. The music moves me every which way when the instruments play. The instruments talk to me, speaking love and peace.

I imagine music, music imagines me. Imagine a world where there's no music. It would be depressing. Nothing to sing, nothing to play, just dark, silent days.

I imagine music, music imagines me. It is a thought, it is a hope, it is a dream. It's the laughter of children, it's a church singing, it's a bird in a tree. It's me and it's you, it is music!
